

Workshop on PCP Incentives

The purpose of the PCP Incentive program is to improve quality, increase access to care for members, and control inappropriate utilization. The program incorporates criteria indicative of quality of care, and utilizes a model in which financial incentives are based upon utilization and quality performance relative to peers.

The 2007 PCP Incentive Program has been revised to incorporate new quality measures! We have created a workshop to assist PCP practices in maximizing their performance incentives in 2007 and incorporating the new measures. The workshop is intended for physicians, office managers, administrative staff, and all others interested in learning more about the PCP Incentive Program. Attendees will:

Learn about new and existing measures

Understand the assignment of Special Case members
